

9/22/18

To who it may concern,

My name is Andrew Meyer and I am an instructor at Colorado State University in the department of Art and Art history. I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of my former student, Samantha Jean Auster. I had the privilege of having Samantha as one of my students in Art 265: Introduction to Intaglio and Relief Printmaking.

During the progression of the semester, I witnessed Samantha's character and work ethic develop to outstanding levels. Samantha was always willing to be an active part of the classroom and all of the discussions. She met each assignment with an open heart and creative mind willing to take risks to further her own development. As the weeks moved forward, Samantha became an excellent example of what any prominent leader should be. She had a high level of compassion and confidence in the relationships she formed with other students.

Samantha's compassionate heart and good work ethic make her a worthy candidate for any position she is applying for. She has shared with me her dream of being an educator after completing undergraduate. I have the upmost confidence that Samantha would excel in the classroom because of her natural ability to lead and make other students feel comfortable. Samantha is a role model for other students in the studio because of the courage and determination she shows when creating art. Samantha is always willing to go the extra mile with any assignment, and she constantly inspires her fellow students to work with a high level of honesty and integrity.

It is with full confidence, I recommend Samantha for any position she is applying for in the education field.

Andrew Meyer
Instructor of Printmaking
Colorado State University

